

Mykonos, Inkjet print on fine art paper, 58 x 78 cm, Edition 1/5, 2016

PARIS PETRIDIS

Between

(May 27th - June 22nd, 2016)

Animals constantly appear in the photographic journeys of Paris Petridis.

The exhibition Between includes a selection of these meetings. Paris Petridis explores the feeling of self-sufficiency that animals exude as an imaginary projection of an unspecified human lack.

The exhibition includes material from Petridis's participation in Dio Horia's residency programme. In addition, the exhibition is accompanied by a text by political theorist and professor at the School of Political Sciences of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Yannis Stavrakakis.

PARIS PETRIDIS (b. 1960, Thessaloniki) lives and works in Thessaloniki. Petridis has presented his work in a number of solo and group exhibitions including: Thessaloniki Biennale of Contemporary Art (2013), Istanbul Modern (2010) and Theatre de la Photographie et de l'Image (2008, Nice).